

The Durgin Center

EASTERN AREA
AGENCY ON AGING

Taking an exercise class,

sharing a delicious meal,

*playing games
with friends,*

*letting creative
juices flow,*

*in an easy
to get to location.*

The Durgin Center is conveniently located in Twin City Plaza, 274 State Street, Brewer. There is ample parking and public bus line service right to the front door.

The new center will have multiple classrooms enabling EAAA to expand its current variety of classes, activities and social opportunities for adults of all ages.

The center will be the hub for the Meals on Wheels program, which is projected to provide 25,000 additional meals to homebound elders in EAAA's four county area.

Eastern Area Agency on Aging is an independent, regional nonprofit 501(c)3 organization serving Penobscot, Piscataquis, Hancock and Washington Counties. EAAA, a well-respected and reputable community organization, has assisted older adults with living independently since 1973.

Our vision is to provide a vibrant center that will address the ever growing needs of the expanding population of older adults by giving them a communal, friendly and safe space to socialize, stay active and engaged in life as they age.

You can be confident your gift will be used effectively, efficiently and will directly support members of the community.
